

STATEMENT OF ACCOMPLISHMENT

DESIGN KIT: THE COURSE FOR HUMAN-CENTERED DESIGN

As of July 10, 2018,

Phil Hedayatnia

has successfully completed an online course, Design Kit: The Course for Human-Centered Design, provided by +Acumen and IDEO.org through NovoEd.

This 7-week course provided an introduction to the methods and tools of human-centered design, while tackling a real-world design challenge. Topics covered in the course included: human-centered design research methods, concept generation, and rapidly prototyping a solution to a poverty-related design challenge. Congratulations! We're glad to have you in the +Acumen community.
